

David Webb

David is one of the premier radio and television personalities in the United States. David is the host of the prime time "The David Webb Show" on SiriusXM's Patriot Channel and is a leading contributor and analyst for The Fox News Channel, The Fox Business Channel and Fox Nation.

He has been entertaining and informing the public for more than three decades, from music to talk radio, in major markets including Boston, Dallas, Houston, and New York City, terrestrial syndication and now satellite.

Throughout his career, David has appeared on numerous U.S. radio and television stations. He is well known internationally due to frequent appearances in Asia, Australia, Europe and Latin American on platforms such as BBC Radio and TV, CNN International, Dutch National TV and NDTV India.

David is one of the original founders of the Tea Party movement. He co-founded TeaParty365 in New York City, an advocacy group for fiscal responsibility. He also co-founded Reclaim New York, a non-partisan non-profit organization focusing on citizen education and activation on affordability, the economy, and government accountability.

David serves on the board of American Humane, Wounded Warriors Family Support, the Board of Advisors at Florida International University's Adam Smith Center for Economic Freedom and is a Trustee of the Young Marines National Foundation.

David and his wife Astrid reside in Miami and New York City.

Selected Accomplishments

- September 2022 Appreciation Award from the Civil Rights, Human Rights and Veterans Committee UAW 276 Arlington, TX
- June 2019 recipient of the Retired Detectives of the City of New York ARDY award
- October 2015 recipient of the National Police Defense Foundation's Excellence in Media Award
- January 2015 debated at the Oxford Union against the proposition that America is institutionally racist
- 2012 appeared in the documentary District of Corruption
- 2012 appeared in the documentary Runaway Slave
- December 2011 selected as a Time Magazine's Person of the Year
- November 2010 listed in About.com's Satellite Radio's New School of Conservative Talk Stars
- September 2010 named to the Newsweek Inside the Tea Party Top 10